VILE PLANS LAID BARE.

What the Machine Men Propose to Do in November.

THIRTEEN POINTS OF FRAUD.

Intimidation, Bribery, Theft and the Like to Be Employed.

REPEATERS WILL BE ON HAND.

Brown and Taylor Votes to Be Juggled Or Destroyed Overnight—Goebel Will Be Used to Full Extent of Its Infamy to Thwart the People's Will.

Goebel henchmen and negroes are to run the coming election in Kentucky. Upon theft, intimidation and frauds generally hangs the only hope of the Goebel men in forcing the Keaton man in the governor's chair.

The Goebel election law will be used to the full extent of its infamy to thwart the will of the people of this commonwealth. It is proposed by the Goebel machine to make a practically clean sweep of the election officers in the state and make Goebel returning boards of them. The law makes no call for political division in the election commissioners for the counties. They can be all of one party, and in this election they will be all Goebel men. However, according to law, the officers of the election at the polls must be equally divided between the main parties—the Democratic and the Republican.

The Goebel election commissioners of the various counties will appoint as officers representing the Democrats Goebel men, and as officers representing the Republicans negroes who have secretly vowed allegiance to Goebel. These men will do enough corrupt work to leave the Goebel counting in process of the commissioners an easy thing.

Plans in Detail.
The Goebel machine managers have adopted plans to govern the three state election commissioners. There are 13 items in these plans as follows:

First—Aggressive and unscrupulous Democratic election officers.

Second—Timid, ignorant, disaffected or third Republican election officers.

Third—Negro Republican election officers who are for Goebel.

Fourth—Irregularities, so that county boards will throw out Republican precincts; (a) because of some technical violation of the law, such as opening the polls too early or keeping them open too late; (b) by stuffing the ballot box, so that more ballots will be found in the box than there are votes cast; (c) failure of officers to properly certify returns, etc.

Fifth—The Goebel vote will be massed at hour of opening polls in precincts largely Republican, so as to vote first. The vote will be taken very slowly. To accomplish this every scheme for delay will be resorted to, so that a large portion of the anti-Goebel vote will not be cast by the time the polls close, though the voters may have stood in line for hours.

Sixth—All voters not for Goebel will be challenged freely, and, where possible, either rejected or by threats of arrest or suggested penalties the embarrassed voters, many of them, will voluntarily withdraw, or rather than risk getting into trouble.

This also aids in the plan of delay already mentioned.

Seventh—Mutilation of ballots given to ignorant voters, so that such ballots may be rejected in the count. This is to be done by a pencil mark, stamp or blot of some kind, or by having the ballot torn.

Eighth—Run out of ballots in Republican or Brown precincts. This will be done by having Democrats to spoil their first ballots, and by election officers "accidentally" spoiling ballots before voters receive them. This assists, too, in the plan of delay.

Schemes for Repeating.
Ninth—Repeating, by sending voters from precinct to precinct in the country, and in towns where voters are registered, by voting under name of "straw," such as "George Motook," "Abraham Isott," that have been fraudulently registered, and under names of those voters who have not voted or who are away from town; and, should these voters come to vote, they will be rejected because the books will show that they have already voted.

Tenth—Shifting ballots, by pocketing Republican and Brown ballots and substituting Goebel ballots previously stamped and prepared for the purpose.

Eleventh—Keeping the negro Republican vote away from the polls by the use of money, whisky and intimidation.

Twelfth—Contesting and throwing out every Brown or Taylor ballot about which any question can be raised, and appeals to county commission will be decided in favor of the Goebels.

Thirteenth—County commissioners, in recapitulating the precinct votes, will "correct errors," pass on contested ballots and throw out irregular precincts until the required "balance" is obtained.

The Goebel men believe that by using these 13 schemes they can count Goebel and his ticket in—Louisville Dispatch, Sept. 12.

The World To-day is Better Than it Ever Was Before.

BY ELLA WHEELER WILCOX.

Oh the earth is full of sinning And of trouble and of woe, But the devil makes an inning Every time you say it so; And the way to set him scowling, And to put him back a pace, Is to stop this stupid growling, And to look things in the face.

If you glance at history's pages, In all lands and eras known, You will find the vanished ages Far more wicked than our own As you scan each word and letter, You will realize it more, That the world to-day is better Than it ever was before.

There is much that needs amending In the present time, no doubt, There is right that needs defending, And we hear the groans and curses Of the poor who starve and die, While the men with swollen purses In the place of hearts, go by.

But in spite of all the trouble That obscures the sun to-day, Just remember it was double In the ages passed away, And these wrongs shall all be righted, Good shall dominate the land, For the darkness now is lighted By the torch in Science's hand.

Forth from little moles in chaos We have come to what we are, And no evil force can stay us, We shall move from star to star; We shall break away each fetter That has bound us heretofore, And the world to-day is better Than it ever was before.

Love Your Mother.

WRITTEN BY W. C. GRAY, DECEASED, WHEN A SCHOOL BOY.

As we pass along through life we find that no love is so tender, so unchangeable and lasting as a mother's. Yet we hardly apprehend this to be a truth until we are obliged to part with her and then we see the necessity of expressing ourselves while an opportunity is afforded. We should cheer our mothers with a kind word and a fond caress, smooth back the bright silver locks from her brow for we know not how soon they may be smoothed back for the last long sleep and then we will look back with regret at the misimproved opportunities that we had to make our mothers happy. How many are there that express their feelings of love and gratitude for their mothers? Hardly one. I must admit, while they love none the less we fail to express ourselves as we should.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF DIARRHOEA.

A PROMINENT VIRGINIA EDITOR Had Almost Given up, but Was Brought Back to perfect Health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

READ HIS EDITORIAL.

From the Times, Hillsville, Va.

I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wretched cases had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man to-day and feel as well as I ever did in my life.—G. ANOTHER LIE NAILED.

Facts and Figures of Interest to All Voters.

THE TRUE DEFICIT OF KENTUCKY.

Shuffling of Democrats, in Its Efforts to Make Political Capital, Exposed by the Searching Rays of Truth.

The following appeared in the Glasgow (Ky.) News of late date:

"For the fiscal years 1898 and 1899 the Republican state administration collected nearly a half million dollars in franchise taxes in excess of the amounts collected from similar sources during a like period of Democratic administration, and yet the deficiency in the general expenditure fund for 1898 was $526,194.23. At the close of the fiscal year 1899 the deficit in the general expenditure fund was $625,806.73, an increase of $99,612.50 over the previous year. In the face of such a record as this the Republicans have the gall to ask the people of Kentucky to allow them to control affairs for four years longer. Is it any wonder Governor Bradley refuses to make speeches in behalf of such a cause?"

Is it any wonder that the people are losing all faith in statements emanating from Goebel sources when they are confronted with such arguments as this? Mark how plain a tale shall put this confuser of the truth down.

The law now is and for many years past has been that the revenue derived from a tax of 5 cents on each $100 of assessed values shall be set apart for the sinking fund, and shall be transferred to the sinking fund and only withdrawn from that fund in the manner prescribed by law. The deficiency figures given by the news appear large in comparison with the figures of Democratic deficits for previous years simply because the Republican administration strictly followed the law, and its books show the actual condition of the treasury, while the Democratic administration disregarded the law in order to hide the true deficit in the general expenditure fund from the people. The difference in the methods was a matter of bookkeeping resorted to by the Democratic administration to justify it in its efforts to make capital by reducing taxes to a lower rate than the necessities of the state required.

Democratic Deficits.
Now we will give the Democratic deficits in the general expenditure fund as they would have appeared in each year from 1892 to 1895, inclusive, if the Democratic administration had made their books show the facts as the Republican administration has done.

The deficit in the general expenditure fund for the year ending June 30, 1892, as stated by Auditor Norton, was $273,118.83, but no transfers of the proceeds of the 5-cent sinking fund tax were made to the sinking fund for the months of September, October, November and December, 1891, amounting in the aggregate to $237,975.14, but this sum was used to eke out the general expenditure fund without passing through the sinking fund as required by law. If it had been properly transferred to the sinking fund the general expenditure fund would have appeared as it really was, $511,094.02, instead of $273,118.83, as it was made to appear.

For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1893, the deficit is given as $296,364.53, whereas, if the transfers of the 5-cent tax revenue had been made as required in the months of September, October, November and December, 1892, amounting to $246,520.31, the true deficit would have been $780,169.98.

For the fiscal year 1894 the Democratic auditor gives the deficit in the general expenditure fund as $326,149.60, but no transfers of the 5-cent tax receipts were made for October or November, 1893, which amounted to $231,415.38, and must be added to get the true deficit, which was $1,041,815.97.

For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1895, the deficit was given as $265,920.04, but no transfers were made of the proceeds of the 5-cent sinking fund tax for nine months in that year and to get the true deficit that would have appeared if the law had been followed, $380,665.00, the proceeds of that tax must be added, making the deficit $1,221,895.97.

Thus it appears that during these four years an aggregate sum of $1,095,885.83 was kept out of the sinking fund to cover up deficits in the general expenditure fund and the deficits kept up notwithstanding the facts that during that period the general government refunded to the state the sum of over $600,000 on its war claims and that the auditor from time to time had to suspend payment on warrants. And yet in the face of these facts some Democrats have the cheek to ask the people to elect Goebel.—From Louisville Commercial.

Mothers of children affected with croup or a severe cold need not hesitate to administer Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It contains no opiate nor narcotic in any form and may be given as confidently to the babe as to an adult. The great success that has attended its use in the treatment of colds and croup has won for it the approval and praise it has received throughout the United States and in many foreign lands. The Princess of Wales' Priceless Pearls.

The Princess of Wales is getting to be a middle-aged woman now, and has had rather a sad, disappointing life. Still, she is possessed of some of the finest qualities which go to make up a beautiful character. She is a most devoted mother, and adores her grandchildren. She is unselfish and patient, and very generous. She cares very little for society, and only goes when she is obliged to. She has still the remains of great beauty, and was a most lovely and graceful young woman in her prime. She now walks rather lame, and is also quite deaf. She is adored by the people of England, who are ready to do anything for her. She has always been very fond of fine clothes and dresses in exquisite taste, and she is considered to have the finest collection of pearls of any woman in the world. She has just added to it a magnificent string, each pearl of priceless value, which she has been collecting for years. She does not allow her maid to take care of her pearls, but has them entirely under her own care. She always wears some pearls around her neck, and wears her collar exceedingly high, with string after string of her favorite jewels.—From "Miss Van Santvoord's Impressions," in Democrat's Magazine for October.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cts. a bottle, at J. H. Williams' Drug Store.

A Thousand Tongues.

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard st., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"It soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will everyone who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free at J. H. Williams' Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

A Fable for Parents.

A certain mother had a beautiful child. And he had attained to four years. Long were his curls, red were his cheeks; his eyes were lustrous, his expression cherubic. But he was possessed of a spirit of mischief, which tried his mother sorely, so that she cried out, "Oh, I wish that you were ten years older, that you might be less care!"

Now, the mother was proud of her handsome babe, for there was a charm about him that envelopes only those who still retain recollections of the spirit land from whence they came.

Even as she spoke, there appeared a fairy unto her, who said, "Oh, foolish woman, it shall be to thee even as thou hast wished. Kiss thy babe farewell. Thou shalt be spared the trials and responsibilities and anxieties that would surround his life through childhood, and even now shalt thou have thy son that is to be."

And the lovely babe, with chubby hands outstretched, as though he would kiss his mother, vanished in a mist. And a desolation spread over the woman's heart, for there came to her a tall, ungainly youth. Long were his legs, red were his hands, shambling was his gait, and his face was homely. And he made as though he would caress her, but she drew back in horror and said, "This is not my child, but a changeling. Give me back my rosy boy, my darling, my comfort. Let me feel his soft arms around my neck, and I will bear his waywardness and my responsibilities. What if I have gained a son, when I have lost my baby?"

And there came a sound of mocking laughter.—By Charles Battell Loomis, in Democrat's Magazine for October.

One Wife Surely Enough.

Why Monogamy Has Come to Be the Prevailing Matrimonial Principle in the U.S.

Margherita Arlina Hamm, the well-known traveler and author, called when in China upon the wife, or rather the wives, of a great mandarin. Her visit partook of the nature of a festival, so novel was the experience to the Chinese women, whose lives are passed almost entirely within the walls of their yamen. They examined her clothing, and were partly pleased and partly astonished at it. They were shocked by her shoes, and especially by the fact that her feet were not confined by bindings.

Finally one of them said, through the interpreter, "You can walk and run just as well as a man?" "Why, certainly."

"Can you ride a pony as well as a man?" "Of course."

"Then you must be as strong as most men."

"Yes, I think I am."

"You would 't let a man beat you, n't even your husband, would you?" The Chinese woman paused, laughed, and then said: "Now I understand why foreigners never take more than one wife. They are afraid to."—Philadelphia Post.

WHAT WILL YOUR VERDICT BE?

If, under the Goebel Election Law, there can be had justice, and fairness to all parties concerned and the sacred articles in the Bill of Rights preserved, why did four out of five political conventions condemn and pledge the honor of their party to repeal that law? One party may be wrong, two may be wrong, or three for that matter, but would not a sane man conclude that there is more hope in one of four parties being right than the one that defied the four?

The Republican party, for campaign purposes, might condemn this step toward despotism, but it is not logical to conclude that four parties would condemn it for the same reason, especially in the same election. The history of political parties, as recorded by the past, is that each party chooses for its chief plank in its platform, upon which it purposes to conduct its fight, a question with greatest significance to the majority of the people. This being true, (and none but the most ignorant will deny it), why should the people of Kentucky be so aroused over the present situation? It is because of the fact, that their liberty, their freedom, their republican form of government and the only weapon of the poor man are at stake. This infamous Goebel law shows no sign of fairness. It makes no pretense of justice. It offers no inducement for the promotion of honesty. There is no honest man in Kentucky who can face his fellow man and say this law is fair and impartial.
The man who may assert to the contrary, does it without foundation and thus brands himself as a liar and a vagabond. According to the Messiah of Kentucky Democracy, this law deprives man of all his natural inalienable politically. The party that defends this measure acknowledges its inability to meet the issues fairly and squarely and stamps the seal of cowardice upon its brazen forehead. He says: "No party that ever was or ever shall be weighs a feather in the scale with the right of the people to cast their votes and have them counted. We are woefully mistaken in the people of Kentucky if any party can live that identifies itself with Goebelism." Thus sayeth the Messiah. It was charged by the author that the frauds committed in the Eleventh district demand such a law and that it should take immediate effect. No one is more familiar with the utter absurdity of this heinous charge than the author himself. Every word of this charge is as basely false and fabulous as the author is corrupt and unprincipled. To justify the assertion, we give the Democratic per cent. of gain in the First and Eleventh districts in the year 1896 over 1895, also the Republican gain. Bearing in mind that the election officers through the State were appointed by the same County Judges, in both years, 90 of whom were Democrats and the remaining 29 were Republicans. The largest per cent. of Republican gains in the Eleventh district was in Bell county, 60 per cent., while the greatest Democratic gains were in Clinton county, which was 70 per cent. The average Republican gain was 27 per cent., that of the Democrats 38 per cent. In the First district the Democratic gains were enormous, being 166 per cent. in Carlisle; 151 per cent. in Hickman; 137 per cent. in Marshall; 131 per cent. in Ballard, while the Republican gains were much less, being 143 per cent. in Fulton; 115 per cent. in Hickman; 62 per cent. in Ballard. The average Democratic gains in the First were 96 per cent. and the average Republican gains were 35 per cent. In the Eleventh district the Democratic gains were 11 per cent. greater than the Republican gains, and in the First district their gains were 61 per cent. greater than were the Republicans' gain. Should these figures be questioned as to their correctness we shall take pleasure in publishing the official vote in these districts for the years '95 and '96. Yet, in spite of the true facts in the case, and in spite of the fact that 75 per cent. of the County Judges of the State at that time were Democrats, the Republican party is charged with fraud and treachery and are forced, alike with the other parties, to submit, for the present, at least, to the Goebel infamy. It appears that the author of this law was afraid to entrust the Democracy in the hands of 90 Democratic County Judges out of 119 in the State of Kentucky who were under heavy penalties for the faithful discharge of their duties and sought to make himself pretor of the grand Commonwealth by instigating the law to "further regulate elections." Under this pretense of law, three men are directly in charge of all elections in the State. They are all of the same political complexion, and the most bitter partisans in any clime. To these men is intrusted the power to appoint all the county election officers in the State, and to try most all cases of contest, from whose decision there is no recourse. Before assuming their duties each member of this triumvirate is forced and compelled to take an Oath for the faithful discharge of his duties. This Oath is the only precaution this Solomon saw fit to place about his tools, and what is an oath to a politician? It is as valueless to the State as if he had never taken it. This law is actually in force and nothing short of a political revolution will deliver Kentucky from despotism, says Watterson. There will never come a time more appropriate for that revolution than now. If it must come, the sooner the better. Kentucky will never submit to the usurpations of this young, would-be dictator, who would sell his interest in the future, for the glorification of his ambitious. This language is as true as the Holy Writ:

"At the Devil's booth are all things sold, Each ounce of dross costs its ounce in gold."

The Republican party has pledged itself in unmistakable language for the repeal of this law so lewd, so vile, so lost to honor that Satan would not resort to it in his own realms. The Republican plank referring to this law says:
"We affirm that the existing election law in Kentucky, enacted by a Democratic General Assembly in 1898, over the objection of our Republican Governor, is viciously partisan, subversive of fairness and honesty in elections, hostile to the principles of free government, removes safeguards which have heretofore protected and guaranteed the right of suffrage, denies to our courts the power to protect voters in this State against the perpetration of fraud at elections, commits broad power to irresponsible Commissioners not chosen by or accountable to the people for their acts, and imperils the sacredness, and efficiency of the ballot. We therefore set forth as the supreme issue before the people of this State the repeal of this revolutionary law, and the Republican party pledges itself to its repeal and the restoration of the system under which free and fair elections have heretofore been the rule in Kentucky. We appeal to the free men of the Commonwealth who value official honesty and fair elections above the temporary success of party, to join with us in the re-establishment of free suffrage and local self government."

Of course Goebel's convention endorsed this law of duplicity and fraud, which is characteristic of the man himself. We also give the plank of the Music Hall convention on this same law:

"We endorse the amendment to the State election law passed by the last Democratic General Assembly of Kentucky over the veto of the Republican Governor. We declare that amendment to be in the interest of fair and honest elections. Its faithful enforcement will render impossible the commission of any such frauds as were perpetrated in this State in 1896, whereby the will of the people was overthrown and the State lost to William J. Bryan."

We have shown every word of this plank to be false from start to finish and pass to the Lexington convention on the same law without further comment, the plank of which is as follows:

"We denounce in the most unreserved manner the amendment to the State Election Law, known as the 'Goebel Bill,' believing and charging it to be a wilful abandonment of the great fundamental principles of self-government, enacted solely for the establishment and perpetuation of machine politics in this free Commonwealth, in form, feature and intentment. It is a distinct recognition of the Republican doctrine of concentrated and centralized power, a doctrine which the Democratic party has opposed from the very hour of its creation."

The Populists likewise demand the repeal of this odious measure. They denounce it in strong language, which follows:

"We denounce the infamous Goebel election law as a revolutionary and undemocratic attempt to subvert the ballot, to enthrone in power in Kentucky a corrupt political ring, and practically destroy popular government.
Therefore, we demand its speedy repeal and the enactment of a law which will preserve inviolate in the Commonwealth of Kentucky the right of a free, untrammeled ballot and a fair and honest count."

The Prohibition party, in eight pointed words, condemn this same measure as the most outrageous, high-handed act ever perpetrated on a free people:

"We demand the repeal of the odious Goebel election law."

Voter, the case is submitted. You are the jury. What will your verdict be? The plank of the platform of each of the five parties is here given.
Will you do what your conscience demands of you? If you do, no man can say aught against you, if you do not, you and your God for it. The most important question concerning government that man has to deal with is, in our judgment, before the Kentucky voter. All lovers of freedom should rally to that standard bearer of the Republican party and thus avoid the curse of Goe-belism.

"Awake, arise, or be forever fallen!"

A 22 CONSIDERED SUFFICIENT.

It has been said by men of old time, that if you desire to have an effusion of ignorance and "coarse billings-gate," challenge a man for a discussion of a subject, which he is wholly unable to defend and the desired effect will be obtained. So the two editors of THE REPUBLICAN, on assuming the duties of their position, with this old aphorism in view, jointly agreed to explore the fortifications and redoubts of the Herald's editor and see what size projectile would be required to destroy him and put his forces to flight. As a token of war, a challenge was laid at the editor's door and scouts put on duty. It was decided that it would be useless to discharge a 13-inch projectile at his fort, and a twenty-two was considered sufficient to crush all that would be found in the trenches.
So we secured a rapid-fire machine gun, turned loose on the fort some hot shot, the editor fled to a safe retreat and shouted, "You fool! You fool!" and the echo of his own voice retorted, you fool-some-too! Now, if we have driven the sword through the plated mail, and warned it in the marrow of our contemporary, it was because we had overpowered his ability. We intended to vigorously prosecute the campaign with the hope that it would be a lingering struggle, but in this our hopes were vain, and now 'mid the debris of the Herald, the only thing left, is a lot of coarse, rankling "billingsgate."

WHY WATTERSON IS FOR GOEBEL.

The Courier-Journal has assumed a peculiar attitude in this campaign, but when the true facts in the case are understood, there is no mystery left, it is all very clear. When the public has been informed as to the Courier-Journal's stand on the situation and other facts connected with the case, the verdict will be justly rendered.
However, the Courier-Journal stands rather bow-legged on the State Democratic platform. Its editorial consultations are as silent, on the election situation, as death, but its news columns are very encouraging for Goebel. The Courier-Journal condemns the platform on which Goebel is attempting to stand, but is for his election. This is a peculiar attitude of the Courier-Journal, but it is true. No one blames that sheet for supporting Goebel. It is business for it to do so. In 1895 the Courier-Journal Job Printing Co. was paid $12.16 for each plain, medium Record book, while under the Republican administration the same Courier-Journal Job Printing Co. made the same book for $6.02. In 1895 under Democratic rule the Courier-Journal Job Printing Co. received $6,800 for printing 671,000 yellow tax schedules, while under a Republican administration this same Printing Company made 700,000 of the same blanks for $1,800. Is it any wonder that the Courier-Journal is in favor of electing Goebel? From a standpoint of self-interest, no one can blame this sheet.
But certainly Mars Henry has forgotten those bitter editorials he wrote against the Force Bill.

AN IDEAL MINISTER OF GOEBEL'S.

The Louisville Times announces that "the Rev. J. H. James, a prominent minister and lifelong Republican, of Owensboro, will support Goebel for Governor." The Rev. James is well known here, having resided in Ohio county until a few years ago. He began his career as a soldier during the civil war, where he enlisted four times, twice in the Union and twice in the Confederate army. Joining in the pursuits of peace, the Rev. James was quite as erratic as in war. He entered the ministry of the Methodist church, but soon deserted that church and became a minister of the Presbyterian church, but again changed his religion and joined the Christian church, of which he was at last account a minister.

In politics the Rev. James is something of an acrobat, having affiliated with every political organization under the sun. The Rev. James entered the race in Ohio county in 1886 for Jailer on the Prohibition ticket, but later in the race switched off onto the track for County Court Clerk on the Republican ticket.

The Rev. James had already made a record that the Goebelites ought to be proud of, but he won imperishable fame and qualified himself to support Goebelism, when just before the Prohibition election in Hartford last fall, he came here and made a speech defending the saloons. The only minister that ever made a public speech in Kentucky defending saloons is supporting Goebel and the Goebelites ought to be proud of him.

On account of annual meeting of the Louisville Driving and Fair Association the I. C. R. Co., will sell tickets to Louisville and return at rate of one fare for round trip. Tickets to return Sept. 25, 26, 27, 28, and

AMBUSHED

And Shot to Death
While Watering
His Horse.

Prominent Ohio County Farmer Killed in Arkansas by an Unknown Fiend

Mr. John C. Riley has just been informed by the Clerk of Baxter county, Ark., that Mr. Thos. M. Hamilton, a prominent and prosperous farmer, was ambushed and shot to death by some unknown fiend. Two men by the name of Lackey, suspected of the crime, were arrested and indicted on circumstantial evidence, and are now on trial. The trouble came about over some trivial matter between the Lackey brothers and Hamilton, and the neighbors, as usual, helped to aggravate and widen the breach between the two parties, and one day, according to promise, Hamilton gave one of the Lackey boys a good flogging, which tended to bring the trouble to a focus. Finally one day, while Hamilton was watering his horse at a spring in the woods, he was shot and instantly killed.

Mr. Hamilton moved to Arkansas about the year 1887, and was doing well; having all the conveniences of a modern farmer, who is blessed with good luck and fortune. He was a brother of Mrs. R. E. Williams, of near Livermore, and has many friends in the Western section of the county.
He was a special friend of Mr. Riley, having spent their boyhood days in school together. The many friends of the deceased will be grieved to learn of this sad accident.

REV. J. S. COLEMAN.

By special request, we publish the account of Dr. J. S. Coleman's work in the Baptist church, as narrated by Mr. Long, editor of the Beaver Dam Gleaner, last week:

Saturday evening Rev. J. S. Coleman and wife joined the Baptist church here by letter. The scene was a beautiful and effective one. Sixty-one years ago, at the age of eleven years and four weeks, he joined this church by baptism, and now at the age of seventy-three, he returns to her membership, after a ministry of forty-seven years, during which time first and last he served this church as pastor twenty-one and a half years.

There is no one now living, who was a member of this church when Dr. Coleman first joined.
During his ministry he has baptized 5,012 persons, organized 50 Baptist churches, ordained 50 ministers, married 2,000 couples, dedicated 76 Baptist churches, presided as moderator over District Associations for 36 years, for twenty years he was President of the General Association of Kentucky, he was Vice President of the Southern Baptist Convention and presided at St. Louis. He has been editor of two papers, The Green River Baptist and The Western Recorder.

Not only was his return to this church made pleasant by early recollections and this successful and noble record, but beneath the sod of its city of the dead, lie four generations of Dr.
Coleman's family.

The first baptism ever administered in Southwestern Kentucky was administered by his great-grandmother about the year 1770 in Beaver Dam creek. She baptized herself.
Dr. Coleman is living now upon a part of his father's old homestead, where he was born 72 years ago, and owning a beautiful home surrounded by all man wants, and his remaining days should be the most pleasant of his life.

To few men, it is accorded the pleasure to rest in comfort and ease at this ripe old age upon the land of their birth having to their credit a life so well spent for the public good surrounded by a people who love them.

In addition to this record for the church of his choice many thousands have seen the error of their way and ran to life's sweet fountain and been made clean by his preaching with other churches.

It was under the masterly presentation of God's word through him that the writer first realized his unprofitable and pitiful condition—a sinner in the world without knowing God to love him—and Doctor, I will not wait to throw a bouquet on your grave, but say here that I am grateful to you and thank God for such men and pray God's richest blessings upon you and yours. "May the gates of plenty, peace and happiness be opened to these and thine. May no strife disturb thy days, nor sorrow distress thy night.
May the pillow of peace kiss thy check and the pleasure of imagination attend thy dreams, and when length of years make thee tired of earthly joys, and the curtain of death closes gently around thy existence, may the angel of God attend thy bed and take care that the expiring lamp of life shall not receive one rude blast to hasten its extinction and finally, may the Savior's blood wash thee from all impurities and prepare thee to enter into the land of everlasting felicity."

A very pretty custom obtains among certain classes by which the newly married pair starts a savings bank for the child yet to be. Every day a penny or a dime, or as the case may be, is dropped into the bank to swell the fund, and this practice is kept up until the child is old enough to save for itself.
The parents have the right theory but how rarely they carry it to its broadest application.
Every mother is performing laying up for her child what money cannot ir-
radiate—happiness or misery. The nervous mother will have a nervous
child. The irritable and fearful mother cannot have a happy and cheerful child. In mind and body the child will reflect the mother's condition.
The best preparation for motherhood is made by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Its perfect control of the sensitive feminine organism gives it a natural influence over the mind. It banishes anxiety and fear. It does away with the misery of morning sickness. It gives vitality and elasticity to the organs peculiarly feminine, and makes the trial of motherhood easy and brief. It makes healthy mothers, capable of nursing and nourishing the babies they bring into the world. "Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, whisky or other intoxicant. Accept

EMANCIPATION DAY.

A few years ago we colored people of this county decided we would set apart the 22d day of September in each year, for the purpose of celebrating the day on which our fathers were given their freedom. But last spring we had a meeting here in Hayti, called by the President of our Emancipation League, and it was thought best not to have the celebration this year on account of the smallpox in some of our neighboring towns, that were more unfortunate than ourselves, and so we thought that it was all over, when the President had so decided. But a few days before Emancipation day a revered Major, now pastor of the Colored Baptist church here, styled himself leader of the colored people of Ohio county, without ever consulting any of the leading brethren, and attempting to celebrate the day of our freedom and, of course, it was a failure.
Everybody knew it was only to make the said Majors a few of those mighty dollars, that look as big as moons in his eyes, but many of us went to see the races he had advertised and to hear the speakers that he said would deliver addresses. The races proved a humbug and fraud, so the audience was entertained by a few off-hand speeches. First was a Mr.
Jackson, from Pleasant Ridge, Ky., who made a few remarks. Next to follow was the Reverend Piles, who made a good talk, then came forward the reverend Majors. He had no starting point and found no stopping place, but just broke off. He was reckless and embarrassed from the very start and handled his subject in about the same way. He said he was sick when he got up to talk, and most of us thought so before he ran down,—but would say a few words, anyhow, especially about the election. He led off by saying he was not a Democrat and did not like that party. He also said he loved the Republican party, but said he had got sore on that party and intended to set down on it, because the leaders had him on sweetened wind, and invited us all to stay with him. Now, if the reverend Majors is as free from Goebel's money as I am, let us reason together just a little. Will the gentleman tell me and my people where and when the Democrats ever did anything for the negroes, or even promised us anything excepting just on election times and every negro that has any good old horse sense knows what that is for. Now, I'd like to know what hope the reverend brother has to get office from the Democrats, for he said that was what he wanted. All the Democrats want with us colored fellows is to put them in office and then kick us out like we were so many hounds. Now, on the other hand, I'd like to show the reverend brother what the Republican party has done for us colored folks.
The greatest and best thing they did for us was to tear the chains that bound us down in slavery, from our poor souls and made us free and happy people. Now, if any colored man says the Republican party didn't do this, he either don't have any good old horse sense, or he never read any history. But I believe the reverend Majors said Abe Lincoln did not have nothing to do with his freedom, and all sensible negroes knows that Lincoln did free the colored race when he wrote that immortal proclamation emancipating the American slaves. After Lincoln made us free the Republican party made us voters and gave us equal rights to the whites. Besides this the Republican party in the Northern States let our children go to school with the white children. Do the Democrats do us that way? No, I say. They won't

CAPE AND JACKET TALK.

Now that the "melancholy days" are here, the chilling breeze suggest, to you that you should disrobe yourself of summer wear and don heavier wear. We are offering the finest line of cloth and plush Capes ever brought to our city, at prices that competitors cannot touch. We offer all wool double Cape, trimmed in fur, cheap enough at $1.50, our price $1.00. Only twenty-five in stock; when these are gone no more can be had at this price. BE QUICK. Plush Capes at $1.98, $2.48, $3.50, $5.00, $7.50 and $10. All these are salts seal plush, handsomely lined and beaded.

MILLINERY GOSSIP.

Oh! well—it's hardly worth while to blow this department; the ladies are kind enough to do that for us. No Hats trimmed so stylishly. None so cheap—that's what they talk. Endless variety of Rough Riders. Sailors and fine trimmed Goods. Children and infant's wear. Don't make a mistake and buy before visiting HEADQUARTERS.

Comfort and Blanket Chat.

In this line we are hard to down. We start a good 10-4 white and gray Blanket at 48c. We have heavier goods at 75c, $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50, up to our extra large Kentucky-made Blankets, bound with silk, at $3.50.

STAPLE DEPARTMENT.

We are still keeping up our reputation by selling Shirts, Bleach and Brown Cottons, Canton Flannels, all wool Flannels, Table Linens, Calico, Gingham, as cheap as some merchants buy them, and then, too, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Clothing. We are not matched by anyone for correct styles, best quality and lowest prices.

When you come to Hartford if you have a watch, clock, a pair of spectacles or anything in the jewelry line that needs repairing, don't forget to bring it to A. E. Pate, Hartford's jeweler, and get it repaired. He guarantees all work to give satisfaction. Prices reasonable.

Mr. J. A. Anderson, who has been foreman of THE Herald office since February has resigned his position with the Herald to accept a position on the Gleaner at Beaver Dam. Mr. Anderson is a good workman in the printing office and will do well in that line wherever he may choose to labor.

Mrs. John Chlun, of near Beaver Dam, died of consumption Tuesday night and was buried at Liberty cemetery Thursday. She leaves a husband and seven children to mourn her death. Funeral exercises were conducted by Rev. G. J. Bean. THE REPUBLICAN extends condolence to the bereaved family.

Mr. James D. Taylor was sworn in as deputy Wednesday morning by Sheriff S. T. Stevens. Mr. Taylor is an energetic and up-to-date business man and will fill his position with credit to himself and country. He will succeed Mr. R. B. Martin. Since Mr. Martin entered the livery business he found himself unable to do justice in both fields of labor.

Col. C. M. Barnett and family left Wednesday morning for Louisville, where they will spend the fall and winter. The citizens of town regret very much to give this excellent family up, but hope to have them return with the returning of spring. Mr. Barnett has purchased a lot in Hartford and will erect and edifice in the near future for his prominent home.

Col. J. S. R. Wedding received a commission from Gov. Bradley last Friday informing him that he had been appointed on the State Board of Equalization to succeed Henry C. Overstreet, of Owensboro. Col. Wedding is a man whose abilities are well known to all prominent men in the State and the Governor made no mistake in honoring one of Ohio county's best men with this position.

Rev. Silas Newton delivered a splendid sermon for his final address to his audience here Sunday night. Bro. Newton is an earnest worker in his church and for the cause of his Master. He will long be remembered by the people for whom he has so earnestly labored during the past two years, and he leaves us, for his new field of labor, with our very kindest and best wishes.

Capt. N. T. Howard and Hon. R. C. Jarnagin spoke to 400 voters at Baizetown Saturday. The crowd was given a musical treat by the Baizetown Brass Band before the speaking. Capt. Howard and Mr. Jarnagin made splendid speech exposing Goebellism and defending the State and National Republican administration. The liberal applause given the speakers indicates a majority against Goebellism of one hundred votes on the 7th of November.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Ryan, of Schochob, Logan county, are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. B. D. Ringo.

SINGS LIKE A BIRD.

Miss Flora Bertelle in Concert To-Night.

Miss Flora Marguerite Bertelle, daughter of Mrs. I. Benjamin, of Quincy, has brought honor to her native city by her continued success in the musical world. Miss Bertelle traveled through the United States and Canada with the Adelina Patti company, the Anton Seidl Concert Company and the Boston Orchestra, and held fine audiences everywhere. She has also appeared with such famous singers as Christine Nilsson, Charlotte Patti, Emma Eames, Emma Juch, Campanini and others, and was highly praised for her work by eminent critics. Her voice is a beautiful dramatic soprano of sympathetic quality and great range and power. While abroad Miss Bertelle was presented at court where she was received with great favor. In France she was decorated and was awarded the gold medal and diploma of honor, rarely given to foreigners. Miss Bertelle leaves for Louisville Friday, but sings in concert at the Unitarian Church Thursday, September 1, (to-morrow), an opportunity which will be taken advantage of by all the music lovers of Quincy. Miss Kate Cohen and our best local talent will assist in making the concert one to be long remembered.—Quincy (Ill.) Herald.

Miss Bertelle comes highly recommended as being one of America's most attractive vocalists. THE Herald of Quincy, Ill., compliments her most highly and we hope the people of Hartford will be able to verify the Herald's commendation, after having heard her themselves to night in the Court Hall.

Republican Speaking Holt and Throckmorton.

Judge W. H. Holt and Hon. J. W. Throckmorton, Republican nominees for Commissioner of Agriculture, will speak at HARTFORD, MONDAY, OCT. 2nd, 1 o'clock p. m.

Everybody cordially invited.

The news of the death of Jesse Baltzell came very unexpected to us just before going to press. He died yesterday morning about 8 o'clock with diphtheria after a very brief period of illness. Jesse was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. George Baltzell, and this unexpected summons of their beloved boy is indeed heart rendering. Jesse was a very bright and promising boy, only thirteen years old. THE REPUBLICAN, indeed, regrets to bear the sad news of the death of such a promising boy to the friends of the family. The burial will take place to day at Liberty cemetery. The grief stricken mother and father have the sympathy of their many friends.

Come to the Holt and Throckmorton speaking Monday.

Mr. Carl Fry, son of Mr. James P. Fry, of Beaver Dam, died very suddenly Sunday night of typhoid fever. He had only been sick a few days and was not thought to be in any serious danger until the symptoms were made and he was ordered to appear before the great throne of Eternity. The mother of young Fry has been an invalid for a number of years and this young man during this period of her affliction, has been very attentive to her needs. THE REPUBLICAN desires to extend its sympathy to the bereaved family and friends in the hour of their affliction.

Last Saturday was milliner's day for the Hartford merchants. It was our pleasure, by special request, to visit Fair & Co's display, which was elegantly arranged and made a fine showing. We presume the displays in all the stores were handsomely adjusted.

Remember the Musical begins at 8 o'clock in the Court Hall to-night. Everybody is expected to be present.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Prof. Morton and wife visited Miss Mattie Pirtle, Sulphur Springs, 23d. Prof. Morton delivered a lecture at the school house the night of the 23d, at the above named place.

Prof. Shultz made a business trip to Echols Saturday.

Messrs. Ira and Ammon Loyd, Henderson county, have recently matriculated in our school.

Mr. C. L. Patton visited relatives at Adaburg Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. Newton conducted general exercises Tuesday morning. Bro. Newton's talk was very interesting as well as instructive.

Mr. Alva Taylor was a pleasant caller at Ex Wednesday morning. School is progressing nicely.

Quite a number of our students are attending the Fair this week.

A Surprise Wedding.

A Henderson boy soon to wed a fair daughter of Hartford, says Wednesday's Owensboro Messenger:

Mr. Thomas J. Mullen, of Henderson, and Miss Nola May Her, of Hartford, will be united in marriage some time in October. Mr. Mullen holds a very responsible position with the Illinois Central between Paducah and Louisville, perhaps engineer, says the Messenger. The bride to be is a bright and accomplished young lady and has many friends here who will be pleased to hear of her good fortune.

After the nuptials shall have been concluded, which is unknown at present, Mr. Mullen and wife will return to Paducah, their future home.

"A word to the wise is sufficient." Wise people keep their blood pure with Hood's Sarsaparilla and make sure of health.

McHENRY, KY.

Health in this community is good. Miss Maggie Metcalfe, who has been ill of typhoid fever, is improving.

A Mr. White, of Beaver Dam, was buried here Tuesday. Many of our people witnessed the ceremonies at the grave.

About one hundred railroad men are working at or near McHenry. New steel rails have been laid on this division and the roadbed has been broadened and laid with crushed stone. In a short time the I. C. will be the best road in the State.

A Union Sunday School was organized at the school house Sunday. Bro. B. F. Cargill was elected Superintendent and E. W. Patterson, secretary.

Miss Grace Roll, who is connected with the Hartford school, visited her mother last Saturday and Sunday.

School here is getting along nicely. Messrs. Ernest Woodward and E. W. Patterson are the teachers. Much interest is being manifested and good work is being done.

Miss Lillian Patterson, of Prentiss, entered school here Monday. We are glad to have her in our school and welcome her among our people.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Dexter, of Beaver Dam, spent Sunday with friends here.

Superintendents Visits.

On the following dates mentioned I will visit the schools indicated by the following numbers:

Monday, Oct. 2d, No. 51—28—29.
Tuesday, Oct. 3d, No. 86—32—63.
Wednesday, Oct. 4th, No. 69—9—27.
Thursday, Oct. 5th, No. 89—38—26.
Friday, Oct. 6th, No. 79—3—25.
All trustees, patrons and friends of education are earnestly invited to be present. Respectfully, FON ROGERS,

Hartford's Enterprises.

The water works to be in Hartford will soon be a reality. The material for the stand pipe is being hauled from the railroad station at Beaver Dam and its erection will soon be vigorously prosecuted. This is a much needed convenience and a safe guard against fire. Of course it will incur considerable expense on the company and the people should encourage the enterprise in every way possible. All enterprises must eventually fail unless the co-operation of the best citizens can be obtained. Good people, let's encourage this firm in their effort for our good, and then speak a kind word to our town trustees and see if they won't give us something to walk on, in the way of sidewalks, besides the mother earth. One enterprise successfully managed demands another and so the world goes. The new tobacco factory will soon be under construction. The firm has purchased a lot from Mr. D. F. Tracy and will immediately begin work so as to be ready to receive tobacco by the 1st of December. Farmers should not be too hasty in disposing of their crop, it is a foregone conclusion that tobacco will be more valuable this year than for many years.

FALL STYLES READY!

A full line handsome Plaids, Crepons, Broadcloths and other novelties in Dress Goods, now ready for inspection. See styles and learn prices. Handsome line Percals and Friesetta Cloth. Beautiful line Outings and Flannelets.

HATS AND CAPS.

All kinds, styles and prices, both for men, boys and children.

We have just received a big lot ready-made Skirts and Underskirts. A full line Flannel Underskirts, now ready for your selection. SEE THEM.

BLANKETS! BLANKETS!

Yes, we've got them, ranging in prices from 50c, 60c, 75c, $1.25, $1.35, $1.50, $2, $2.50, $2.75, $3.75, $4.50 and $5. Bed Comforts—all kinds and prices.

Ladies' Wraps and Cloaks.

We propose to lead in this line. First, by showing the best and most stylish garments. Second, by offering them to you at One Low Spot Cash Price. Third, when you see our styles and get our prices, are sure to sell. Ask to see this line when in our store.

A big line Trunks, Telescopes and Suit Cases at rock-bottom prices. Notwithstanding the advance in this class of goods, we have run across some bargains and will offer same to you. If you are needing anything in this line, you cannot afford to pass us. Stop and look and get prices.

MILLINERY.

We are showing the nicest assortment of Millinery that has ever been shown in Hartford. We invite everybody to see this line before purchasing. We know we can please you both in style and price. Remember that this department is under the management of Mrs. Sara Collins Smith.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

We carry the largest assortment of Ladies', Gents' and Children's Shoes ever brought to Ohio county. Gentlemen, see our handsome line of Booties, High top boots, Patent Leather Shoes, Vici Kid and all shades in tan. They are beauties. Our prices in this line range from $1.00 to $5.00. Our stock of Boots is now complete. You should see them before you purchase.

Our new line of Pictures are now in. If you have one due you call at once and get it. Very Respectfully,

R. T. COLLINS, HARTFORD

PHILIPPINES LETTER.

John C. Barnard Gives an Account of Himself in a Few Pointed Sentences.

Calamba, Luzon, Philippines, Aug. 16th, 1899.—I hope you may be interested by these few lines from the American army in the field.

Companies C, D, F, H, I and H of the 21st Infantry, about four hundred of the 1st Washington volunteers, three troops of the 4th Cavalry, and a part of Battery E (Capron's old battery) of 1st Artillery took Calamba on the 26th of July. We have been slowly extending our lines ever since. It is slow, cautious work against a large force of inferior morale. To-day's work is a sample.

An early morning counter movement and chase of some Gueguas, who have been annoying our left center. To-day our outposts hold their position of yesterday. The sick list is not large for three weeks of bivouacking with an occasional grass covered "Nipa"—but for partial shelter.

To-day I received three copies of your paper, a new uniform, and a best steam. The Quartermaster and the commissary supplies are far better than in the Santiago campaign of '98.

P. S.—A two cent stamp is good on any mail to a soldier in the Philippine Island, or when signed by an officer will be good to U. S. A.

A Great Revival.

Cromwell, Ky., Sept. 24, 1899. Through the kind providence of God we have been blessed with an old fashioned gospel revival at Green River Baptist church, something that we have needed for a long time. The meeting was conducted by Revs. D. J. K. Maddox and son Ed. We had some fine sermons by Bro. Ed. He did most of the preaching. The church was greatly revived and roused up to a sense of her duty. There were 33 additions to the church, 29 received baptism, one yet to be baptized, 3 by letter and one restored. Some of the members received were old gray headed men and women that had felt the first of many winters. Six of them were heads of families, and one had held to infidelity and argued it for years? The church thinks that the meeting was a grand success, and join in one body in giving God all the praise and honor for such an outpouring of his love.

Bro. James Wilson's two daughters were baptized at the same time, making a twin baptism.

Yours is Christ,
N. C. DANIEL.

Be sure and come to the speaking next Monday.

RAW AS BEEF FROM ECZEMA!

No Torture Equal to the Itching and Burning of This Fearful Disease.

Not much attention is often paid to the first symptoms of Eczema, but it is not long before the little redness begins to itch and burn. This is but the beginning, and will lead to suffering and torture almost unendurable. It is a common mistake to regard a roughness and redness of the skin as merely a local irritation; it is but an indication of a humor in the blood—of terrible disease of the system. Eczema is a disease of the blood, and can be cured by a remedy which is a tonic, Swift's Specific.

Mr. Phil T. Jones, of Moxleyville, Ind., writes: "I had Eczema thirty years, and after a great deal of treatment my leg was so raw and sore that it gave me constant pain. It finally broke into a running sore, and began to spread and grow worse. For the past five or six years I have suffered untold agony and had given up all hope of ever being free from the disease, as I have been treated by some of the best physicians and have taken many blood medicines, all in vain. With little faith left I began to take S. S. S., and it apparently made the Eczema worse, but I knew that this was the way the remedy got rid of the poison. Continuing S. S. S., the sore healed up entirely, the skin became clear and smooth, and I was cured perfectly."

Eczema is an obstinate disease and can not be cured by a remedy which is only a tonic. Swift's Specific.

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

—Is superior to other blood remedies because it cures diseases which they can not reach. It goes to the bottom—to the cause of the disease—and will cure the worst case of Eczema, no matter what other treatment has failed. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed to be free from potash, mercury or any other mineral, and never fails to cure Eczema, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison, Cancer, Tetter, Rheumatism, Open Sores, Ulcers, Boils, etc. Insist upon S. S. S.; nothing can take its place.

Books on these diseases will be mailed free to any address by Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

SECRET ALLIANCE HOAX

Secretary Hay Explodes Democratic Ghost Stories.

RELATIONS WITH ENGLAND

They Are Friendly, but No More So Than With Germany.

OUR UNPARALLELED PROSPERITY

Republican Policy of Protection Has Justified Itself by Its Works, Domestic and Foreign Trade Reaching Proportions Never Before Attained by Us.

Some expressions in the recent platform of Ohio Democrats have moved Secretary Hay to write a letter to Chairman Dick of the Ohio Republican committee. Coming from the secretary of state of the United States the letter is important.

After saying that the Democratic party had lost its stock in trade by the collapse of their money hobby and their free trade hobby, owing to the prosperity of the country under sound money and a protective tariff, Mr. Hay proceeded:

What is left, then, in the way of a platform? The regulation of trusts, which the Republicans can themselves manage, having all the requisite experience both of legislation and business; and finally the war, which, it seems, is so efficiently carried on, and has been too beneficial to the nation to suit the Democratic leaders. We have been able to give in our time some novel ideas to the rest of the world, and none more novel than this, that a great party should complain that the results of a war were too advantageous. It will be hard, however, to convince the bulk of our people that we are the worse off because our flag has gained great honor, our possessions have been extended, our position in the world increased, and our opportunity for work and usefulness enormously widened through the fortunes of war and the valor of our soldiers and sailors.

No Extanting Alliances.

Being in this desperate need of arguments, it is not strange that they seek by this great misrepresentation to assure that in that struggle we shall bring the sweat to their brows.

It was written of old that a man's foes shall be of his own household. The simple fact is that at this moment the whole world is our friend except certain leaders of the Democratic party. All countries crowd into our markets, but our opponents say our tariff is barbarous. Our achievements in war have received the ungrudging praise of foreign nations, and meet with unjust and carping criticism only at home. All other countries bid us goodspeed in the work of bringing order and civilization to the Philippines, and we are left to a man to clean up the other day to wish that "Otis and his army might be swept into the sea."

It is hard to exterminate a rooted tendency—the Proverbs say something about braying in a mortar. The party which, by vicious leadership in 1861, was made to place itself across the path of freedom and progress should take care not to follow the lead of this year of men as lacking in sagacity as they are in patriotism. But we may take comfort in the reflection that no leaders can carry all their party into courses their judgment must condemn and their hearts reject. There are, thank God, many Democrats in Ohio who do not desire the humiliation of their country or the dishonor of their flag.

Yours faithfully, JOHN HAY.

Wm. Williams.

Goebel is the kind of a fellow that passes a law to regulate a corporation and then takes a plea from the corporation to fight his own law and down it in the court of appeals. He's the kind of a fellow that goes to the courts and then, as an attorney for the banks, goes before the highest courts to padlock his own enactments to pieces.—Paducah Sun.

HYPOCRITICAL AFFAIR.

False Pretenses of Goebel Faction in L. & N. Fight Exposed.

The fight against the Louisville and Nashville Railroad company now being waged by the Goebel faction of the Democratic party in Kentucky is hypocritical and will amount to nothing. However, we want it distinctly understood that we favor no trust or corporation that is detrimental to state and nation.

Democratic papers throughout the state have palmed this corporation as a vast monster and powerful political organization. Let us look at it from philosophy's point of view. As citizens of the state the men who compose the L. & N. are entitled by law to the same privilege and protection as any citizen out of it, and if those men in common are against Goebel and Goebelism they have the same right—as American citizens—to oppose him and bring about legitimately his defeat as much so as the Republican, Populist or any political party on the opposition side.

The Louisville and Nashville has done more for the development of Kentucky than any like concern in the state—in every section which it traverses. In evidence, it has carried the conveniences of civilization into many remote sections of the state, it feeds many thousands of workmen, it affords facilities to the farmer, the manufacturer, and the merchant, and carries the product of these men to markets other than those in the state, and, too, at a neat profit to the producers. The L. & N. is a commercial enterprise of brilliant magnitude, not only in Kentucky, but Tennessee, Ala-cross a river in the South in less time than any European nation, with a start of 4,000 miles, can do the work. We sell ironware in Birmingham; carpets in Kidderminster; we pipe the sewers of Scotch cities; our bicycles distance all competitors on the continent; Ohio sends watch cases to Geneva. All this is to the advantage of all parties; there is no sentiment in it; they buy our wares because we make them better and at lower cost than other people. We are enabled to do this through wise laws and the American genius for economy. Our working people prosper because we are all working people; our idle class is no meager one. All the energies of the nation are devoted to this mighty task—to insure labor its adequate reward, and so to cheapen production as to bring the product within the reach of the greatest number for the least money.

Not an Attitude of Menace.

Of course our prosperity would not bring us friends if we held an attitude of menace to other nations. But this we have never done, and I hope and believe we never shall do. We have great latent military power; we are capable at short notice of remarkable military efficiency, but the habit and spirit of the American people is essentially peaceful. The vast majority of our people would be glad to think that the era of wars was over; but not another battle anywhere in the world should ever stain the earth with carnage or break the heart of a mother. No other nation would ever have shown the long-suffering patience with which we have watched, for so many years, the scenes of waste and disorder which make the recent history of Cuba. When the state of things at our doors had become intolerable we took up arms to redress wrongs already too long endured, without a thought in our mind of conquest or aggression. But no one can control the issues of war. Porto Rico and the Philippines are ours, and the destinies of Cuba are, for the moment, entrusted to our care. It is not permitted to us to shrink the vast responsibilities thus imposed upon us without exhibiting a nerveless pusillanimity which would bring upon us not only the scorn of the world, but what is far worse, our own self-contempt. But as we did not seek these acquisitions with a view to war, we are not striving to acquire territory or extend our power by conquest. It is no secret that in more than one quarter territory only awaits our acceptance, but every overtone of this nature has been, and is, in our mind, declined. The whole world is our friend except certain leaders of the Democratic party; our possessions have been extended, our position in the world increased, and our opportunity for work and usefulness enormously widened through the fortunes of war and the valor of our soldiers and sailors.

INCREASE OF AMERICAN EXPORTS ONE OF THE MARVELS OF THE TIME.

The increase in the amount of the exports of manufactured goods by the United States in the past nine or ten years is one of the commercial marvels of the time. In the fiscal year 1890, according to figures just sent out by the bureau of statistics at Washington, the United States exported $181,102,376 of manufactured goods of all sorts. In the fiscal year 1899, closed on June 30, a little over two months ago, the exports of the same class of wares were $338,687,794. At the beginning of the period named, in the year 1890, the country's imports of manufactures were $356,651,940. They were $263,248,559 in the fiscal year 1899.

Here is an exhibit which will be a surprise to the world, and exceedingly gratifying to the United States. The amount of the country's exports of manufactures have more than doubled, the increase being 120 per cent in the decade, while the imports competing goods have fallen off 26 per cent in that time. The exports of the growth of manufactures can be appreciated by comparing it with the growth in population in the interval, which has probably been about 19 per cent. The United States is expanding in number of inhabitants far faster than any other great nation in the world, but its increase in the sales of its manufactured goods, about six times greater. Moreover, the gain is still under way, as shown by such figures as have come to hand since the new fiscal year began in July.

This immense expansion in our sales of manufactured goods in the rest of the world is a fine tribute to the virtue of the protective policy, and to the business sense of the Republican party in devising it, and in placing it on the statute book in defiance of the opposition of the Democracy. It also accounts for the great activity in all the country's leading industries. More manufactured goods are consumed in the United States now than at any period in the past, but they are chiefly home-made goods, and the proportion of these articles which are used here is constantly and rapidly increasing. No other country in the world is so nearly self-sustaining as the United States. No other has so many of the comforts and the luxuries of life. Half a century ago it was the belief of a very large number of the people of the country that the exports of the United States would always be confined chiefly to agricultural products. That was the theory held by all the leaders of the Democratic party. It is the theory which has been acted upon by that party almost to the present time. The Republicans changed all these conditions. They framed and carried a system of protection to domestic employment which stood in need of it, and which promised to expand into important proportions on account of it. This policy, which has been fought by the Democracy from the beginning, has not only put the United States in the front rank of manufacturing countries, but has enabled it to compete steadily and rapidly enlarging markets in the principal countries of the world.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Not That for Goebel.

In his speech at Russellville on Sept. 12, Hon. W. H. Sweeney, referring to a speech made by Goebel at Paducah that every speech made by Brown was paid for by the Louisville and Nashville railroad, read a telegram he sent to Goebel, asking if he made the state a liar for Goebel.

Commenting on this, he said: "I never received any reply, and I want to say that so far as the statement refers to me it is a willful and deliberate lie and its author a public slanderer and a common liar, and Mr. Goebel knows my address, and I am not likely to be away from home. Great God, my countrymen, do you want a liar for governor?"

In regard to what Goebel said about Theodore Hallam's brother, Mr. Sweeney said it was an insult to every Confederate soldier, and if any Confederate soldier voted for Goebel he would only be degrading himself.

IF GOEBEL DOES NOT INTEND TO STEAL THE ELECTION, WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?
